Compliance Officer, Buffalo, NY

Our large, non-profit, child welfare organization is looking for a confident, enthusiastic individual with 3-5 years of experience in corporate compliance who is ready to cultivate a culture within our organization that promotes high quality, effective services through the prevention, detection and resolution of conduct that does not conform to federal and state law, federal healthcare program requirements and established agency policies and procedures.

To achieve this goal, the Compliance Officer will oversee day-to-day compliance operations and ensure that internal, regulatory and client service levels are achieved, through the following activities: Creating and maintaining written compliance policies and procedures regarding the standards of conduct on the staff, program and agency levels; Coordinating the operation of a Compliance Committee that works in cooperation with, and reports to, the Board of Directors and the Senior Advisory Committee and serves to advise the Chief Administrative Officer on the agency's compliance program; Maintaining a comprehensive internal audit system to ensure that the agency is in compliance with the full range of contractual and Medicaid requirements in critical operations areas and reduce the risk of fraud and improper payments; Conducting formal compliance training and informal compliance education programs, and other duties as outlined in formal job description.

Qualifications:

The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

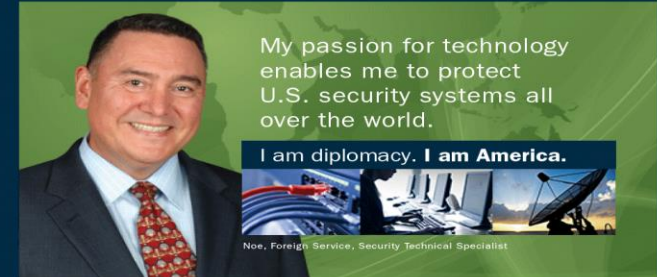

Education and/or Experience:

- Bachelor's degree from a college or four-year university.
- Three years' of experience in corporate compliance, preferably related to Medicaid and/or managed care compliance.
- Industry related training/certification.

Skills:

- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Ability to handle complex compliance research and make decisions independently.
- Ability to read, analyze and interpret rules, regulations and statutes, industry articles, financial reports and legal documents. Ability to respond to inquiries and complaints, effectively present information to customers, regulatory agencies and senior management. Able to coach and mentor program staff

Qualified applicants should send a cover letter and resume to Ms. Jennifer Raymond, jraymond@ndyfs.org.
